

WAR IS NOW OVER
Senators Will Act Favorably
on the Behring Treaty
BEING READY TO RATIFY IT

The Amicable Tone of Lord Salisbury's Latest Note Certain to Avert the Threatened Trouble.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Behring sea war clouds have rolled by and the outlook is once more peaceful. Salisbury's conciliatory note has done it. The president sent to the senate Monday afternoon the reply received from the British premier and also his answer to it.

The president's answer expressed the gratification the administration felt that Great Britain was willing, after the ratification of the treaty, to agree to an arrangement similar to that of last year. He was not able to concur entirely as to the conditional or consequential damages laid down by Lord Salisbury, but he had no doubt that the points of difference on this point could be settled satisfactorily.

London, March 29.—In the house of commons E. Templeley Gourley, liberal member for Sunderland, asked whether Lord Salisbury's government had refused to renew the modus vivendi in the matter of the Behring sea negotiations.
